EXITING STATISTICS FOR THE CLASS OF 2010

On October 1, 2009 the class of 2010 numbered 378 12th graders, along with another 23 members of the class of 2010 listed as 11th graders by credits (although two of those students are cross credited and are not intending to earn a Roosevelt diploma). Moving forward to June 17, 2010 we had 392 seniors and 21 class of 2010 juniors (plus the two cross enrolled students). 340 of those students were on the graduation list (336 12th graders and 4 11th graders). This is an overall graduation rate of 82.3% based on June numbers, and 85.29% using the October 2009 count. Using the state measure of seniors only, the graduation rate is 85.7% using June numbers and 88.8% of students from the 12th grade October count. Of the 73 non-graduating students 17 are 11th grade by credit. The breakdown of non graduates who are 11th grade by credit is 5 ELL, 4 SPED and 8 regular education students. Of the 56 12th grade non-graduating students, 18 regular education students did not meet graduation requirements. 15 are bilingual students and 20 students not graduating are in special education. Finally, 3 are exchange students not planning to graduate from Roosevelt.

We asked the graduating students to inform us of their future plans and we got responses from 337 of them (99.1%). 288 graduating members of the class of 2010 report they are continuing their education immediately following high school, (84.7 % of graduates). 224 Rough Riders report that they plan to attend four-year institutions of higher education (65.8 % of graduating students). 136 (40 % of graduates) of our students matriculating at four-year schools will be staying in Washington. 55 will attend the University of Washington (Seattle).
